GENERAL FUNCTIONS OF THE INDIVIDUAL SPHERE - ALEMBIC

This energy sphere added to the body is created with very complex selfic structures. Before this creation/activation it does not exist and does not have these functions.

It does NOT correspond to the aura.

"IT IS AN ALCHEMICAL BODY ADDED THAT HAS TO BE AFFIRMED WITH THE REPETITION OF THE EXERCISE"

FUNCTIONS

- 1) Broadens your sensitivity
- 2) Concentrates your potential
- 3) Sterilizes the aura and bring you to a "zero point", a neutrality that allows to create or absorb substances properly. (It must be done before creating substances and before absorbing them, even if it is done with other methods)
- 4) It is a thickener and distiller of substances created by you
- 5) Makes it possible to pour or absorb substances through the subsequent creation of the spout (which is not done the first time, it must first be created and perceived)
- 6) Also used to remove unwanted parts from substances
- 7) This system, unlike the others used before and after, is used in particular to create concentrated substances. Therefore, the same substance is reused many times and reloaded with this system.
- 8) The substance created will then be possible to dilute it in purified water, if its effect is very strong, considering every drop as a unit.
